THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

The Republican City Convention last night was a harmonious and representative body. The ambitions of the several candidates were not causes for any acrimony or ill feeling, and enthusiastic manifestations for the ticket chosen proved that the delegates and the lookers-on were of one mind and resolution as to the strength of the ticket and the determination to work united and cordially for its election. Republicans give their party its independence and outspoken wishes and opinions of the membership, and hence it is that candidates for party support have to pass severe ordeals as a rule, among Republicans.

The ticket chosen last night was not an exception to the rule stated, and it came out of the trial with the manifest determination to be true to it. It is a good ticket throughout, and one that every sincere Republican can and should support.

Eugene J. Gregory, the nominee for Mayor, is the present incumbent of the office. He has been a successful executive officer in the past, and a fair-minded and energetic legislator. He has youth, vigor and high purpose on his side. His administration has been a notably successful one, his trusts discharged honorably and intelligently, and his aims, however crippled and hampered by environment, have been in the interests of Sacramento. He is a product of the city, many cool in methods. All his interests are here, and he is loyal to the welfare of the community.

His nomination by acclamation was a fitting tribute to an unwavering Republican, a vigilant and capable official and thoroughly trained business capacity.

Mr. W. F. Drew, the nominee for Chief of Police, has resided here fourteen years.

He is an upright citizen and has had experience as a peace officer under Sheriff

Drew of this county.

Mr. E. C. Hart, nominated for City Attorney, has filed that office for one term with credit to himself and faithfulness to the people. He is a competent lawyer, thoroughly familiar with the important and weighty duties of the office, and is in every way a strong nominee.

Mr. M. A. Howard, the nominee for Fire

Commissioner, is an old-line Republican and long a courageous soldier in the ranks. He is an experienced fireman, having served in various positions for many years, and is in every respect qualified for the position for which he is nominated.

The ticket is strong from top to bottom, representative of the local party, and it is one that will command the unanimous support outside of party lines, and will be elected.

The strike of the ironmolders in San Francisco is a sad mistake, for it may result in depriving this State of the results of the prosecution of a great industry.

The strike is a remedy in mistake. Mr.

Powderly, who has so long had the confidence of the wage-earners of the trades, has been even more emphatic than this in his denunciation of the strike, and he speaks from the volume of experience.

The position of the employers is a very simple one. They say that they are thrown into competition with Eastern manufacturers, whose maximum payment of wages is the minimum on this coast.

It is not proposed to reduce the wages here to that standard, but to make such an adjustment as will leave the maximum here much higher than that of the East, and that will save to this coast the iron manufacturing industries. If this cannot be done, they declare that they will have their castings made at the East. Assumprisoners in Mississippi, under a vicious system that is the shame of civilization, are hired out to contractors to hard labor. The slavers will therefore be but prisoners nominally, unless the executive officers insist upon the condition of "hard labor" being enforced. But at any rate the law has been vindicated in the case of Kilrain, and probably will be in that of Sullivan, and this is something of gain. The suggestion that the new Governor of Mississippi may pardon both men is absurd. If he should do so, he would insult the Executive that ordered the prosecution, and would practically say to the people that the laws are valueless, and the mere subjects of his whim. Governor Stone, who is said to be a very conscientious man, will not smirch his office by relieving these offenders of the penalties of their offense.

LORD SALISBURY has explained his relation to the escape of Somerset with entire satisfaction. It appears that when the Private Secretary of the Prince of Wales called upon the Premier, he did not find him, and left a message without stating why he wished to see him. Salisbury naturally supposed it referred to some movement of the Prince, and had no idea whatever that the Somerset case was in view. Now this, coupled with Lord Salisbury's firm denial that he connived at the escape of Somerset, ought to lead Labouchere to withdraw his statement, on doing which unquestionably the suspension of the member will be recalled. Lord Salisbury has the reputation of being a man of truth and uprightness, and his denial must, therefore, until proof of falsity is brought out, be accepted. That is no more than common justice.

It took fourteen men to carry the non-suspension petition for ballot reform into the Assembly of the New York Legislature Monday. No such large petition has ever before been presented to a deliberative body. It is time for Governor Hill to begin to hedge.

MUSEUM ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting—Reports Submitted—New

Board of Directors—Etc.

The annual meeting of the California

Museum Association was held at the E. B.

night was very pleasant, and the attendance was fair. There were present some of the most prominent men in the city, and the meeting was a success. The reports
